

International Meeting “Sexuality Education for Adolescents and Young Adult Refugees”

ibis Styles Istanbul Atasehir, Istanbul, Turkey on 26th November 2024

The meeting aims to gather interested European stakeholders, e.g. institutions, organizations, ministries, multipliers, social workers, sexuality education trainers, health sector workers, young refugees, etc. The participants will get an overview of research and actions taking place in the area of sexual and reproductive services and learn from each other about useful methods and lessons learned. The meeting will be an opportunity to recognize good practices in the field of sexual and reproductive health services for young refugees in European countries, to increase awareness of this topic, and encourage networking and capacity building.

The meeting is part of the project "Sexual and reproductive health of young refugees - good practices and lessons learned" implemented in partnership of the Federal Center for Health Education from Germany, the Turkish Family Health and Planning Foundation, and the Novi Sad Humanitarian Centre from Serbia. The project is supported by the Erasmus+ Small Scale Fund.
